

Self-Disclosure Form

England Netball aims to promote equality of opportunity for all persons and welcomes applications from a wide range of candidates. All applicants are required to complete a Self-disclosure form on application for this job/role.

The position for which you have applied is an exempted occupation for the purpose of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. All “spent” and “unspent” convictions must be declared. Having an “unspent” conviction will not necessarily impede your appointment within Netball*. This will depend on the circumstances and background to your offence in relation to the position you are applying for. Evaluation of information is based on strict confidentiality and discretion.

If you are successful with your application, under the provisions of Exceptions Orders to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, you will be asked to undertake an Enhanced Disclosure through the Criminal Records Bureau (CRB). An Enhanced Disclosure will contain information about criminal offences including convictions, cautions, reprimands and warnings. It will detail ALL previous convictions etc. including those usually regarded as “spent” under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

*England Netball has a policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders. A copy is available on request.
